

Student Leader Selection Process

Role of student leader

The Student Leader is the primary contact for the Enactus team and is the representative who regularly communicates with Enactus Canada. As the leaders of the Enactus team, the Student Leader will be the liaison between the team and the Faculty Advisors as well as their Program Manager at the Enactus Canada National Office.

Selecting a new student leader

The process of selecting a new Student Leader should be a seamless interaction between faculty advisors, the outgoing president and/or Enactus alumni. They will act as a selection committee to help ensure that the new Student Leader is selected for the team prior to the Enactus Canada National Exposition.

Qualities of the ideal candidate

The incoming Student Leader should, at minimum:

- Be familiar with their Enactus team's projects.
- Be comfortable with their Faculty Advisor(s)
- Have strong leadership skills.
- Be organized, meet deadlines, and manage competing priorities
- Be willing and ready to communicate regularly with their Enactus Canada Program Manager.

It must be signed off by a Faculty Advisor, the outgoing Student Leader and the incoming Student Leader. Please fill out, scan and email the completed form to your Program Manager prior to the deadline.
